Hi, I'm Dorothy Wang. Welcome to my website, where I share my insatiable passion for travel along with insider tips on how to truly experience my favorite destinations around the globe. Consider this your go-to source for curated, trusted information from someone who has been there—and done a lot.

Travel has always been a cornerstone of my life. Even as a child, I had a fervor for global cuisine and an obsession with learning about the nuances of other cultures around the world. My travel has truly taken me from A (Abu Dhabi) to Z (Zimbabwe), and back again. And I've learned that it's not always the chicest or most exclusive places that make a destination truly memorable. It's knowing exactly where to go and what to do, while saving room for a bit of spontaneity and magic along the way.

For years, I've been seeking to inspire and encourage my friends and social media followers to get the most out of their trips with my "unofficial" travel guides and highlighting my favorite places to stay, eat, and play. With all the resounding positive feedback, it became clear that these tips were as helpful as they are fun to write. So, I decided to create DorothyWang.com as a place to share this information with travelers (and travel-hopefuls) everywhere.

It's my sincerest hope that my website not only allows you to make the most out of your trips, but also inspires you to get out and experience new and exciting cultures! Because whether it's shaking hands or sharing a meal with someone of another cultural background, travel is the thread that binds us all together.

Dorothy
